Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The information in Item 4 is incorporated herein by reference.

The Class A Shares reported herein are directly held by the Master Account, Consonance Opportunity Master, the Managed Account and Consonance Life Sciences. The source of funds used to purchase such Class A Shares was the working capital (which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business) of each of the Master Account, Consonance Opportunity Master, the Managed Account and Consonance Life Sciences.

The aggregate purchase price of the 500,000 units ("Units") of the Issuer (each Unit consists of one Class A Share of the Issuer and one-third of one warrant ("Warrant"), with each whole Warrant entitling the holder to purchase one Class A Share at $11.50 per share) held directly by the Master Account was $5,000,000. The aggregate purchase price of the 371,100 Units held directly by Consonance Opportunity Master was $3,711,000. The aggregate purchase price of the 128,900 Units held directly by the Managed Account was $1,289,000. The aggregate purchase price of the 434,000 Units held directly by Consonance Life Sciences was $4,340,000.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The Issuer is a newly incorporated blank check company incorporated for the purpose of effecting a merger, share exchange, asset acquisition, share purchase, reorganization or similar business combination with one or more businesses or entities, which will be referred to herein as the Issuer's initial business combination (the "IBC"). Consonance Life Sciences is the Issuer's sponsor. Prior to the Issuer's initial public offering, Consonance Life Sciences purchased 2,300,000 Class B ordinary shares ("Class B Shares") of the Issuer for a per share price of approximately $0.011. The Class B Shares will automatically convert into Class A Shares at the time of the IBC. On November 18, 2020, Consonance Life Sciences transferred 30,000 Class B Shares to each of the Issuer's three non-employee directors. Other than such non-employee directors, Consonance Life Sciences is currently the only holder of Class B Shares, and until the completion of the IBC, only holders of the Class B Shares will be entitled to vote on the appointment of directors of the Issuer.

Letter Agreement

On November 18, 2020, Consonance Life Sciences and the non-employee directors of the Issuer (collectively the “Founding Team”) entered into a letter agreement (the “Letter Agreement”) with the Issuer pursuant to which the Founding Team agreed that if the Issuer fails to consummate its IBC within the time period set forth in the Issuer’s Charter, the Founding Team shall take all reasonable steps to cause the Issuer to (i) cease all operations except for the purpose of winding up; (ii) as promptly as reasonably possible but not more than 10 business days thereafter, redeem 100% of the publicly traded Class A Shares, at a per-share price, payable in cash, equal to the aggregate amount then on deposit in the Issuer’s Trust Account, including interest earned on the funds held in the Trust Account and not previously released to the Issuer to pay income taxes (less up to $100,000 of interest to pay dissolution expenses), divided by the number of then outstanding publicly traded Class A Shares, which redemption will completely extinguish the rights of the holders of publicly traded Class A Shares as shareholders (including the right to receive further liquidation distributions, if any); and (iii) as promptly as reasonably possible following such redemption, subject to the approval of the Issuer’s remaining shareholders and the Board, liquidate and dissolve, subject in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) to the Issuer’s obligations under Cayman Islands law to provide for claims of creditors and in all cases subject to the other requirements of applicable law. The Founding Team also agreed not to propose any amendment to the Issuer’s Charter (i) that would modify the substance or timing of the Issuer’s obligation to provide holders of the publicly traded Class A Shares the right to have their shares redeemed in connection with an IBC or to redeem 100% of the publicly traded Class A Shares if the Issuer does not complete an IBC within the required time period set forth in the Issuer’s Charter or (ii) with respect to any provision relating to the rights of holders of the publicly traded Class A Shares unless the Issuer provides such shareholders with the opportunity to redeem their Class A Shares upon approval of any such amendment at a per-share price, payable in cash, equal to the aggregate amount then on deposit in the Trust Account, including interest earned on the funds held in the Trust Account and not previously released to the Issuer to pay income taxes, if any, divided by the number of then-outstanding publicly traded Class A Shares.

The Founding Team Further agreed pursuant to the Letter Agreement to (i) waive their redemption rights with respect to any of their Class B Shares and Class A Shares (collectively, “Founder Holdings”) in connection with an IBC, (ii) to waive their redemption rights with respect to any Founder Holdings in connection with a shareholder vote to approve an amendment to the Issuer’s Charter (A) that would modify the substance or timing of the Issuer’s obligation to provide holders of Class A Shares the right to have their shares redeemed in connection with the IBC or to redeem 100% of public Class A Shares if the Issuer does not complete its IBC within 24 months from the closing of the Issuer’s initial public offering or (B) with respect to any other provision relating to the rights of holders of Class A Shares or pre-IBC activity and (iii) waive their rights to liquidating distributions from the Trust Account with respect to any Class B Shares or Class A Shares acquired in private placements they hold if the Issuer fails to consummate an IBC within 24 months from the closing of the Issuer’s initial public offering (although they will be entitled to liquidating distributions from the Trust Account with respect to any public Class A Shares they hold if the Issuer fails to complete its IBC within 24 months from the closing of the Issuer’s initial public offering).

Further, pursuant to the Letter Agreement, the Issuer agreed not to enter into a definitive agreement regarding a proposed IBC without the prior consent of Consonance Life Sciences, and the Founding Team agreed that if the Issuer seeks shareholder approval of a proposed IBC, then in connection with such proposed IBC, the members of the Founding Team will vote their Issuer securities in favor of such proposed IBC (including any proposals recommended by the Board in connection with such IBC) and not redeem any publicly traded Class A Shares held by them, in connection with such shareholder approval.

Pursuant to the Letter Agreement, the Founding Team agreed not to transfer, assign or sell (i) any of their Class B Shares (which automatically convert to Class A Shares at the closing the IBC) until the earliest of (A) one year after the completion of the IBC and (B) subsequent to the IBC, (x) if the closing price of the Class A Shares equals or exceeds $12.00 per share (as adjusted for share sub-divisions, share capitalizations, reorganizations, recapitalizations and the like) for any 20 trading days within any 30-trading day period commencing at least 150 days after the IBC, or (y) the date following the IBC on which the Issuer completes a liquidation, merger, share exchange, reorganization or other similar transaction that results in all of the Issuer’s public shareholders having the right to exchange their Class A Shares for cash, securities or other property, and (ii) any of their Units, Class A Shares or Warrants acquired in private placements or Class A Shares acquired upon exercise of Warrants acquired in private placements until 30 days after the completion of the IBC. Further, during the period commencing on the effective date of the Underwriting Agreement for the Issuer's initial public offering and ending 180 days after such date, the Founding Team agreed not to transfer any Units, ordinary shares of the Issuer, Warrants or any other securities convertible into or exercisable for or exchangeable for ordinary shares of the Issuer without the prior written consent of the representative of the underwriter.

The foregoing description of the Letter Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Letter Agreement, which is incorporated by reference as Exhibit 99.2, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement

On November 18, 2020, the Founding Team entered into a Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement with the Issuer (the "Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement") pursuant to which the Founding Team will be entitled to certain registration rights for Class B Shares (including any Class A Shares or other equivalent equity security issued or issuable upon the conversion of any such Class B Shares or exercisable for Class A Shares), Units acquired in private placements, Class A Shares and Warrants acquired in private placements and any Class A Shares issuable upon the exercise of Warrants acquired in private placements held by them. Following the date of the IBC, the holders of at least the majority in interest of the then-outstanding number of the registrable securities covered by the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement will be entitled to make up to three registration demands, excluding short form registration demands. In addition, the Founding Team will have certain "piggy-back" registration rights with respect to registration statements filed subsequent to the IBC. However, the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement provides that the Issuer will not permit any registration statement filed to become effective until termination of the lock-up periods applicable to the securities covered by the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement.

Pursuant to the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement, upon and following the consummation of the IBC, Consonance Life Sciences will be entitled to designate three individuals to be appointed or nominated, as the case may be, to the Board as long as Consonance Life Sciences holds any securities covered by the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement, which is incorporated by reference as Exhibit 99.3, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Private Placements

On November 23, 2020, simultaneously with the closing of the Issuer's initial public offering, Consonance Life Sciences purchased 410,000 Units in a private placement with the Issuer for $10 per Unit. In addition, simultaneously with the closing of the exercise of the option to purchase Units by the underwriters of the Issuer's initial public offering, Consonance Life Sciences purchased 24,000 Units in a private placement with the Issuer for $10 per unit.

The Warrants included in the Units described above and those included in the Units purchased in the Issuer's initial public offering will become exercisable on the later of (a) 30 days after the completion of the IBC or (b) 12 months from the closing of the Issuer's initial public offering. The Warrants will expire five years after the completion of the IBC. The terms of the Warrants included in the Units acquired in the private placements discussed above and in the Units sold in the Issuer's initial public offering are described in the Warrant Agreement, dated November 18, 2020, by and between the Issuer and Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company (the "Warrant Agreement").

The foregoing description of the Warrants does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Warrant Agreement, which is incorporated by reference as Exhibit 99.4, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Initial Public Offering Purchases

On November 23, 2020, the Master Account purchased 500,000 Units, Consonance Opportunity Master purchased 371,100 Units, and the Managed Account purchased 128,900 Units for $10 per Unit in the Issuer's initial public offering.

Mitchell J. Blutt currently serves as Chairman of the Issuer's Board and Benny Soffer is a director on the Issuer's Board.

Consonance Life Sciences has also indicated an interest to purchase up to an aggregate of 2,500,000 Class A Shares (for $10.00 per share or $25,000,000 in the aggregate) in a private placement that would occur concurrently with the consummation of the IBC. The capital from such private placement would be used as part of the consideration to the sellers in the IBC, and any excess capital from such private placement would be used for working capital in the post-transaction company. Such indication of interest is not a binding agreement or commitment to purchase, and Consonance Life Sciences may determine not to purchase any such shares, or to purchase fewer shares than it has indicated an interest in purchasing.

Pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of Consonance Life Sciences, dated November 16, 2020, following the IBC and the expiration of any transfer restrictions on securities of the Issuer held by Consonance Life Sciences, Consonance Life Sciences will distribute the securities of the Issuer held by it to its unitholders. The Master Fund, Consonance Opportunity Master and the Managed Account in the aggregate own the majority of the unit interests in Consonance Life Sciences.

The Reporting Persons continuously assess the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, general economic conditions, other developments and additional investment opportunities. Depending on such assessments, and subject to any restrictions described herein, the Reporting Persons may acquire additional securities of the Issuer or new securities of the Issuer or may determine to purchase, sell or otherwise dispose of all or some of the Issuer's securities beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons in the open market, as applicable, in privately negotiated transactions, in transactions directly with the Issuer or otherwise. Such actions will depend upon a variety of factors, including, without limitation, current and anticipated future trading prices, the financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Issuer, alternative investment opportunities, general economic, financial market and industry conditions and other factors that the Reporting Persons may deem material to their investment decision.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The information in Item 4 is incorporated herein by reference.

(a) and (b) Items 7 through 11 and 13 of each of the cover pages of this Schedule 13D are incorporated herein by reference. Consonance Management is the investment adviser of both the Master Account and Consonance Opportunity Master, and pursuant to investment advisory agreements, Consonance Management exercises voting and investment power over the securities of the Issuer held by the Master Account and Consonance Opportunity Master and thus may be deemed to beneficially own the securities of the Issuer held by the Master Account and Consonance Opportunity Master. Consonance Opportunity is the investment adviser of the Managed Account and exercises voting and investment power over the securities of the Issuer held by the Managed Account and thus may be deemed to beneficially own the securities of the Issuer held by the Managed Account. Capman, as the general partner of Consonance Management and Consonance Opportunity, and Mitchell J. Blutt, as the manager and member of Capman, may be deemed to beneficially own the securities of the Issuer held by the Master Account, Consonance Opportunity Master and the Managed Account.

Blutt, Benny Soffer and Kevin Livingston may be deemed to have voting and investment discretion over the securities held by Consonance Life Sciences and thus may be deemed to have shared beneficial ownership of such securities.
